

...Movies with a difference

is proud to present:

Monday January 10, 2011, 7:00 p.m.

Score: A Hockey Musical

*Running time: 92 minutes

He shoots, he sings! Michael McGowan's Score: A Hockey Musical, is a playful and joyously entertaining charmer uniting Canada's national obsession with the overnight success stories of the classic Hollywood musicals. Boasting young love, on-ice drama and cameos that range from Olivia Newton-John to Nelly Furtado to some surprises from Canadian icons, McGowan's latest is a playful delight.

From its opening montage of shinny through the ages to the rousing closing number, it's game on!

Tamara Drewe

*Running time: 111 minutes

Based on Posy Simmonds' graphic novel of the same name (itself inspired by Thomas Hardy's classic Far From the Madding Crowd), this wittily modern take on the romantic English pastoral is a far cry from Hardy's Wessex. When Tamara Drewe (Gemma Arterton, The Disappearance of Alice Creed, Quantum of Solace) sashays back to the bucolic village of her youth, life for the locals is thrown tail over tea kettle.

The film, directed by the inimitable Stephen Frears, takes the urban notion of the countryside and its people and turns it on its ear.
